Doggie Daycare Safety Policy: While all dogs must pass the preliminary temperament test to be eligible for the daycare program, some behaviors may be revealed only after a dog has attended daycare for a number of days. If conduct deemed unacceptable or dangerous occurs and after our staff has taken measures to correct and re-teach the behaviors in question, Paw Tales reserves the right to immediately deny any dog's eligibility at any time in the event that a dog shows the potential to cause severe injury or to be unwilling to adjust to the daycare program. The client agrees to the terms of Paw Tales and releases Paw Tales and staff, as well as the owners of other dogs attending Paw Tales of all liability. Paw Tales is not a training ground for dogs with difficult issues, nor is it the responsibility of Paw Tales attendants to devote extensive attention to a single dog's problem issues.

Although the Paw Tales environment is a safe and well supervised area, the client acknowledges that rough play can be an inherent part of dog behavior in daycare. Despite well trained staff and constant supervision, play may become too rough and an injury to pets may result. Should the pets require immediate treatment before the client can be contacted, the client authorizes Paw Tales to treat pets as deemed necessary. Following any injury, Paw Tales will attempt to contact the client as soon as possible, but regardless, the client acknowledges and assumes all financial responsibility for treatment provided by signing this document. Regarding behavior, if the staff determines that any dog shows excessive stress or aggressive behavior in daycare, the client gives permission for Paw Tales to transfer the dog to an individual inside enclosure within our facility. We will make every effort to inform the client of the situation. Paw Tales reserves the right to immediately deny any dog's eligibility at any time in the event that a dog causes severe injury or displays dangerous aggression.

By signing below, I understand and agree to the terms stated above, and I release Paw Tales, as well as the owners of other dogs attending daycare, from any and all liability.
